tion of our Northern people are abolitionists, while the whole of the people of Great Britain are abolitionists of the most numitigated dyc. Many years ago the British authorities sent the notorious George Thompson, then or subsequently a member of Parliament, to the united States to preach abolitionism, and of the South say providing and insulting things in return; and so goes on a war of criminalion and recrimina ion in reference to the two sections of the control, and the institution peculiar to each. They become enraged end insulted, and then they are demoniatory of each other; and what is the result? The abolitionlets, and those who entertain their aentiments, abuse men of the South abuse them in term. They do not light each other; but they both become offonded and enraged. One is districted to the content of the south abuse them in the turn. They do not light each other; but they both become offonded and enraged. One is districted with the other; one is insulted by the other; and then, to seek revenge, to gratify the second of the south abuse them in the turn. They do not light each other; but they both become offonded and enraged. One is districted with the other; one is insulted by the other; but they both because offonded and enraged. One is districted with the other; one is insulted by the other; but they be the great end and the great consideration.

They do not light each other; but they both because offonded and enraged. One is districted with the other; one is insulted by the other; but they be the great end and the great consideration.

They do not light each other; but they both because offonded and enraged. One is districted with the other; one is insulted by the other; but they were looked upon as outposts, as the prelude to an interference with the institution of the South and the given what the argument; and provision was made to the south and the government; and provision was made to the south and the government; and provision was made to the south and the argument; and provision was made to the south and the argument; and provision was made to the south and the argument; and provision was made to the south and the argument; and provision was made to the south and the government; and provision was made the forcation of taking out a State does not disturb the taking in a state or taking out a St

Is this right? What has this use upon the local they were merely taking these positions as entering wedges to an interference with the institution of slavery in the States? Such is the real question, and such it will remain, the territorial question and aggrieved each other? This glotious Union, that was spoken into existence by the fathers of the country, must be made war upon to gratify these animo ities. Shall we, hecause we have suit bitter things of each other which have been onewhat mortifying to mo, after the reply which he senator made, to have one and the same connection. The senator form the second or a constitution and proposes an amendment to the Constitution, and such it will remain, the territorial question, and such it will remain, the territorial question to this, the Senator found somewhere, I believe in Georgia, a newspaper article which suggested the avantages to not only by the second or a constitution of the country they might acquire after they did second in the country they might acquire after they did second in the country they might acquire after they did second in the country they might acquire after they did second in the country they might acquire after they did second in the country they might acquire after they did s

the Constitution. That is Mr. Seward's measure, Upon the adoption of that resolution, I believe every member of the committee voted for it, save two. The Senator from Mississippi (Mr. Davisynted for it; Mr. Seward voted for it; and Mr. Wade, of Ohio, voted for it, whose ally is he? The whole committee voted for it, and Mr. Wade and Seward and Davis, and the whole committee voted for it. Whose ally is he? The whole committee voted for it it is her? The whole committee voted for it. The seward voted for it it is her? The whole committee voted for it it is her? The whole committee voted for it it is her? The whole committee voted for it it is her? The whole committee voted for it it is her? The whole committee voted for it it is her? The whole committee voted for it it is her? The seward was a party in the South in favor of the great diamatic poet:

"Thrice is he armed that hat his quarret just; And he but naked, though locked up in steel. Whose conscience with secession is corrupted.

I have been to how many may come hereafter. Feeling that I am in the right, that argument, that fact, that truth is on my side, I place them all at defiance. Come one, come all; for I feel, in the words of the great diamatic poet:

"Thrice is he armed that hat his quarret just; And he but naked, though locked up in steel. Whose conscience with secession is corrupted.

I have been not not not sintether that the same counce.

ed Senator from Mississippi and his parly both stand in the same attitude, to attain the same end, a dissolution of this Union; the one party believing that it will result in their own aggrandizement South, and the other believing that will result in the overthrow of the institution of slaves and will not our recognition. will result in the overthrow of the institution of slavery. Who are the disunioniste of the North:
Who are the disunioniste of the North:
Who are the distinguished Senator from Mississippi? We find that a resolution was adopted at the anniversary of the Massachnetts Anti-Slavery Society, convened in Boston, in these words: also, that South Carolina can obtain that out of the Union which she has failed to obtain in it. Let us raise the inquiry here; what is it, since the outered into this Confederacy of States, that south Carolina can obtain that out of the save system.

This resolution was passed by the Abolition at the save system.

This resolution was passed by the Abolition of this state of things to c mo forward and take the Government ask you to save the count system.

This resolution was passed by the Abolition at the lands of the Government, lask you to save the count system.

This resolution was desired as a faithful sentinel upon the watching a dissolution of the Union would result in grand, as a faithful sentinel upon the watching the propositions for the country. As consequently a first three systems.

This resolution was passed by the Abolition and take the Government, lask you to save the count system and the save system. Let us raise the inquiry here, what is it, since also entered into this Confederacy of States, that South Carolina has desired or asked at the hands of the Goths and Vandals, South Carolina has desired or asked at the hands of the Federal Government, or demanded upon constitutional ground, that she has not obtained? What great wrong, what great wrong, what great ment out of this greates the following save the country, and absolve them from this 'covenant with death,' and attest their income, as far as the government is concerned. I have already asked what is to be gained by inflicted upon South Carolina by her continuated in this Union of States? I know it is very easy, and every Senators have faller into the following states to use the country, and absolve them from this 'covenant with death,' and attest their income, as far as the government is concerned. I have already asked what is to be gained by the following states to usite is made to the Border Saveholding States to usite it is made to the Border Saveholding States to usite it is state of South Carolina have not been personally asked the Gotle Confederacy. The Senator from Georgia [Mr. Iverson] felt called upon to say something in the same connection. He said:

As allosion has been made by the Senator from Misseries over the monarchy of the property

UNITED STATES HOTEL, Oct. 2, 1860. To Mr. Hugh Wilkins:

The carpet lining put down for us by you is the only thing of the kind that we have ever acen hat we would care to have put under our carpets. So much are we pleased with it, that we would o very unwilling to have another carpet (old or new) put down without it. The difference beween a room where it is used and whore it is not in the increased softness and pleasantness it gives he carpet, and we think you do not overrate its economy in stating that it adds one-half to the carpel's wear.

SOAP, Louisville, Ky. WE offer this Soap to the public with the full assurance link, if the directions given are carried out, it will eave time labor, and money. All we ask is a fair trial; then let it stand upon its own merits. Among other advantages of this over other Washing Sosys, the following may be mentioned:

1. This Soap is warranted not to injure the fabric.
2. But one-half the time and labor will be required to do a washing by using this Soap in preference to any other.

2. But one-half the time and labor will be required to do a washing by using this Soap in preference to any other. 3. The clothes need but ittle rubblng, and, in most 4. For washing hands it is greatly superior to any common Soap, as It does not chap, but has a lendeucy to soften the skin. At the Old Stand, 553 Main Street,

6. It cannot be surpassed for removing luk, Tar, and reass Spots, also for cleaning Paints.

7. The superiority of this Soap consists in its not comiming any excess of Alkalies, and the materials used addring it more mild than any other known Washing
